- Spring Dance-A-Thon

- International Night – May 11

- We are still collecting donations for a gym clothes swap n shop.

- Other topics of discussion:

- Gates have been installed on the first and second floors at the south hallways. These are intended for weekend use only and are meant to keep visitors who are using the gym from wandering through our part of the building.

- You may have received a different type of notice from the cafeteria regarding fees. Ms. McFaddon used these forms because she was unable to print the regular receipts. She will return to using the regular receipts as soon as her printing issues are resolved!
